Looking for a Tech Elective to Fill Out Your Spring 2026 Semester?

You're in luck! Your advising team has compiled a list of courses for you that all count towards helping you round out your degree — and hopefully have a little fun while doing so!

You can find an extensive list of tech electives here. If you have any questions, feel free to schedule a meeting with your advisor!

Attend the 9th Annual ELT Leadership Conference

Don't miss the 9th Annual Engineering Leaders of Tomorrow (ELT) Conference, happening October 17–18, 2025 at the ISU Alumni Center and Howe Hall. This two-day event brings together students, professionals, and thought leaders to explore leadership, innovation, and the future of engineering.

Organized by a collaboration of student groups — including Emerging Leaders in Engineering, HCI Club, IEEE, IISE, NSBE, and Triangle Fraternity — ELT offers inspiring keynote speakers, engaging breakout sessions, and valuable networking opportunities with peers and industry professionals.

To view the full conference schedule and see the list of speakers, click here.

Registration is just $10 and includes:

- Access to all sessions and events
- Three meals
- A conference t-shirt
- Swag and giveaways

What's Happening on Campus this Week? — Fall Landscape Design Sessions!

The Landscape Club is now taking sign-ups for their Fall Design Sessions on Saturday, Oct. 18 at Horticulture Hall, starting at 9 a.m. For $160, you'll get a personalized one-hour session with club members, which includes:

- A basic site overview
- A custom landscape perspective drawing with plant recommendations

Whether you're looking to improve your yard or just want fresh ideas, this is a great way to support the club while enhancing your landscape. Spots are limited and first-come, first-serve, so don't wait! All proceeds help fund our trip to the National Collegiate Landscape Competition, where we represent ISU on a national stage.
