Study Abroad in Nepal — Spring and Summer Programs Available!

Looking for a unique, short-term, study abroad experience? Consider Nepal! ISU students who joined past Spring Break trips called it one of the most unforgettable experiences of their college careers.

The Spring Break 2025 program, Empowering Rural Nepal Through Environmental and Women's Entrepreneurship, is currently accepting applications. A Summer Break 2025 program, Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Women, Culture, Agriculture, and Development in Rural Nepal, will begin accepting applications soon — so keep an eye out!

Both programs offer hands-on learning in rural Nepal, focusing on real-world issues like sustainability, equity, and community development.

Add Some Flavor to Your Fall — Seats Still Open in HSPM 3850!

Looking to add a fun, 1-credit course in the second half of the Fall semester? HSPM 3850: Beer Brewed Beverages in Hospitality Management is an engaging 8-week class where you will explore beer, cider, mead, perry, and sake through guided tastings, interactive lectures, and a field experience of your choice.

Open to all majors — no prior experience needed, just a curiosity for global beverages! However, you Must be 21+ by the first day of class.

This laid-back, hands-on class (located in MacKay 212) is perfect for students interested in hospitality, food science, or just trying something new.

Enroll now or ask your advisor if you have questions!
